Edward Siemens High Performance Bursary

Philosophy

The Edward Siemens High Performance Bursary is presented annually by Tennis BC to assist high performance junior athletes in accessing program development opportunities such as those within the Tennis BC Team BC program. It is awarded to an individual or individuals who have participated in programs such as the Tennis BC high performance programs and have been selected or could be selected to represent BC as part of the Tennis BC Team BC Program.

Description

The award(s) will be annual and in the form of a bursary to the chosen athlete(s). Each award will be a minimum of $250 up to a maximum of $2000. Bursaries may be awarded to multiple athletes in any given year.

Purpose of the Award

To provide financial assistance to competitive junior tennis players to enhance their long-term development.

Applicant Criteria

- 1) Member in good standing of Tennis BC
- 2) Show strong sportsmanship characteristics
- 3) The athlete will be between the ages of 13 and 18 at some point during the calendar year the athlete receives the bursary. The athlete must be eligible to compete in junior tennis events in BC throughout the calendar year the athlete receives the bursary.
- 4) Resident of BC
- 5) Academically responsible
- 6) Proven dedication to improvement
- 7) It is expected that the candidate be a member of Team BC or Team Canada and/or have participated in the Provincial Training Camps and/or be selected to Tennis BC Team BC within the past year
- 8) The athlete can identify a specific program or event for which the funds will be used.

Timelines

Applications will be open from February 1 through March 29, 2021. Recipient(s) will be chosen by April 30th. The application form is available through the Tennis BC website. Only award winner(s) will be notified, and cheque(s) will be processed within 2 weeks. Award winners will be announced annually at the Tennis BC Annual General Meeting.

Committee

The four member committee is made up of two independent members, the CEO of Tennis BC and one Tennis BC Board Member.
