

VANCOUVER LAWN
TENNIS & BADMINTON CLUB

Contract Position – Assistant Tennis Coach

August 9, 2021

The Vancouver Lawn Tennis & Badminton Club, founded in 1897, has a celebrated reputation as Vancouver's premier racquets club. Located just 10 minutes from downtown, our Members enjoy a private oasis in the city with superior racquets programs, year-round amenities, superb dining and friendly, personalized service.

Vancouver Lawn is the place to play tennis. With 16 courts — 12 hard surface and four clay — the Club is one of the best facilities in the province for year-round tennis. Members of Vancouver Lawn are an active community of racquet enthusiasts at the center of Vancouver's tennis scene and we strive to ensure time at the Club is both enjoyable and rewarding.

This is a part-time contract position reporting directly to the Head Tennis Professional. Hours of work vary based on allocated coaching court time. The Assistant Tennis Coach must be a personable, passionate professional who takes a sincere interest in member satisfaction. The Assistant Coach will ensure our members and guests are met with friendly, efficient service and provide quality coaching and programs to meet and exceed members' expectations.

The ideal candidate will be confident, positive and engaging with experience coaching all abilities and age ranges from juniors to adults.

Requirements

- Valid TPA certification – Level 1 or higher preferred.
- Passion for tennis and teaching others.
- Experience working with all levels including children's groups, adults, and beginners.
- Exceptional member-service skills.
- Punctual, organized, detail-oriented.
