

Tennis Professional – Full-Time

Richmond Country Club was founded on the principle that no member would be denied admission because of their race, color or creed. We have undergone many transformations since our founding in 1958, however the spirit of inclusion remains one of our core values.

RCC is looking for a full-time tennis professional who has the skill set to develop all ages and levels. Our tennis program consists of a nationally recognized junior program that has both a recreational and performance stream. Our club also offers year-round adult group and private lessons. This position will be reporting to the Director of Racquets and Athletics, Henry Choi.

Be a Part of the Team

- Competitive hourly rate (based on coaching certification)
- Access to the amenities of the club (tennis, fitness, golf etc.)
- Be a part of a nationally recognized program

Qualities we are looking for in a candidate

- Versatile in coaching ability (junior progressive and high performance, all levels of adults, groups and privates, willing to work with all player abilities)
- Dedicated, responsible, organized, works well within a team environment
- Passionate about the sport of tennis
- Looking to continue coaching certification and pursue professional development opportunities

Requirements & Qualifications

- Minimum Tennis Canada Instructor coaching certification
- Preferred Tennis Canada Club Pro I certification
- Minimum 2 to 3 years coaching experience
- Current criminal record check
- Must be fully vaccinated

Duties and Responsibilities

- Coach a full range of private and group lessons to members and guests
- Attend team meetings as required
- Assist with tournaments and club events as required
- Prompt response and organization of emails

Please send your resume and cover letter to hchoi@richmondcc.ca.

We appreciate your interest in the position of tennis professional at Richmond Country Club.

For further information please visit www.richmondcc.ca | www.rcctennis.ca.